Index to the Economist,

From 2nd September 1843, to 28th December 1844.

EXPLANATORY NOTICE.—The following is not an Index to every paragraph or article which has appeared in the Economist up to this time. It is an Index to LEADERS and generally to such matter as it is supposed the paper would be most likely to be referred to with the view of acquiring information regarding. NEWS are not systematically indexed, for one reason, among others, that they carry along with them necessarily a sort of index to their whereabouts; and matters of such importance as meetings of the ANTI-CORN LAW LEAGUE, Statements of the STOCKS OF COFFEE AND SUGAR IN THE PRINCIPAL MARKETS OF THE WORLD, &c., after being once referred to, are merely mentioned as being to be found in other parts of the paper, which an inquirer's own precise idea of what he wants will easily enable him to find out. It remains only to be added, that several articles, thought to be of principal importance, are indexed twice or oftener, so as to facilitate the finding of them out; and readers are advised to look for matter under more heads than one before resting satisfied that there is nothing in these pages regarding what they are looking for. Thus there are discussions on the CURRENCY indexed under the letter C and also (with reference to the Bank, Bank Charter, &c.) under B; on the UNITED STATES both under U and under A (as America, American Debts, &c.); and on COAL DUTIES and COAL MINING under the letters C, D, and M, &c. &c. &c.—4th January, 1845.

To our Readers.

THE extensive and increasing support which this Journal is receiving from the leading Mercantile, Banking, and Manufacturing Classes, without reference to political party, has induced a constantly increasing care to render the Commercial Department of the paper as complete and accurate as possible, and thus to combine, with the discussion of principles, a practical current usefulness, and work of future reference. To express more fully this growing characteristic, a slight addition has been made to its title with the beginning of the year; and some important additions have also been made in its contents of practical utility. It is now called

The Economist,

WEEKLY COMMERCIAL TIMES, AND BANKERS' GAZETTE.

And will contain—

First.—Leading articles on Political, Economical, Financial, Commercial, and general subjects, discussed on strict economical and free trade principles as heretofore.

Second.—A careful digest of the Proceedings and Debates in Parliament.

Third.—A careful abridgment of the News of the Week, with a notice of the Theatres and Public Amusements.

Fourth.—Law Reports of cases particularly connected with Commerce.

Fifth.—Literary Notices, and particularly of all Works on Economical, Financial, and Commercial subjects.

Sixth.—Correspondence and Answers to Queries on subjects of Statistical and Commercial Interest.

BANKERS' GAZETTE,

Seventh.—A careful account of the Money and Discount Market, a Review of the Foreign Exchanges, of the Returns of the Bank of England, and the general state of the Circulation of the whole Kingdom; Notices of Books on Currency and Banking, and Leading Articles on all new and important questions connected therewith.

COMMERCIAL TIMES.

Eighth.—A Review of the Current Commercial Questions of the day, and of the Markets abroad and at home.

Ninth.—Weekly Statement of Imports, Exports, Consumption, and Stocks on hand, of the chief Articles of Foreign and Colonial Produce, and the Raw Materials of Manufactures.

Tenth.—A notice of all public sales of produce announced to take place in London and Liverpool in the ensuing week.

Eleventh.—A Price Current of Finance, Commerce, Railways, and Corn Markets, &c., and the Gazettes of the week.

Once in each month will be continued to be published the very important OFFICIAL TABLE of Imports, Consumption, and Exports for the WHOLE KINGDOM, of all leading Articles of Foreign Produce and of the Exports of British Manufactures, for the current year, compared with the corresponding periods of past years, with a careful review of the results which these returns indicate. Also, monthly, or more frequently, an account will be given of the Exports of some of the leading Articles of British Manufacture, particularly of Cottons, Woollens, Linens, &c. distinguishing the countries to which they go, so as to act as a timely check to overshipments.

The numerous and important Commercial and Financial questions which must be discussed in the ensuing Session of Parliament, on the subject of Taxation, Import Duties, and Banking, will specially engage the attention of this Journal, both before and during their discussion.

Every care will continue to be used to secure the most perfect accuracy on all points, and to maintain this Journal independent of all personal or party influences.

Annual Subscription (exclusive of binding), Twenty-six Shillings.

Published at the Office, 6 Wellington street, Strand, London; and to be had of all Newsmen.

Note.—PRICE CURRENT OF FOREIGN AND ENGLISH STOCKS, BANKS, RAILWAYS, MERCHANDISE, &c.—It is difficult to over-estimate the value of such a weekly record, both for PRESENT and FUTURE REFERENCE, if got up with unerring care and perfect accuracy, which we are afraid has seldom hitherto been done. We have in vain tried all the usual channels for obtaining such information, for one on which perfect reliance can be placed; on the contrary, we have been subjected with all the pains we have used to most glaring errors. We have had recourse to a plan which we have fully organised, which will enable us to accomplish this task with the strictest accuracy—viz. to collect from as many eminent and leading firms, as there are classes of articles, the actual price of each article on the day of publication, and in this plan we have secured the co-operation of all the parties required for this important task.
